Dear Mr. Richard McCoy,

It gave me a great feeling of confidence talking to you on December 16, 1977. My mother, Mrs. Doris Helen Howard (when married to my father [redacted] my mother's last name was [redacted] before my mother's marriage her maiden name is Hunter.) My grandmother's name is Mrs. Irene Thomas before the last marriage my grandmother's last name was Winters. My first cousin [redacted] born November 30, 1963 is there in Guyana. Are you sure over there (2) November 1976

Prior to my mother + Grand Mother being sent over there in June 1977. Please try and help me get my relatives back I know they are hostages there. They might say they are not because they are afraid of Jim Jones. My Mother have written to me four times + each time I have answered. In her last letter she ask why I don't write to her. See they aren't giving My mother my letters. I will do whatever it take to get My mother, grandmother + Cousin home please let me know what can be done; and my aunt the seven children mother [redacted] was not together - he died in [redacted] but the rest is for the funeral. See my uncle [redacted] really not [redacted] at other because my aunt had them when and my [redacted] at that [redacted] accepted as [redacted] by my Uncle and all the family.

[redacted] at name really is [redacted] his father and [redacted] receiving his father's pencil Recently I don't know what's happening to his check. Bridget she had been there in Guyana, Tennessee My mother Doris Howard was in a car accident some years ago. One of her legs were left shorter than the other from the accident So she has to wear a shoe with a lift on it (a built up shoe) I wonder how she got that shoe over here. She said in her last letter that she would be making a trip back here in the months this was the m... we're a little concerned about it. A week ago which
